

Print / PDF flyer · 8.5 × 11 portrait

:: Resident resource (Letter)

★ OverTaxed IL COOK COUNTY · PROPERTY TAX APPEALS

FOR HOA
AND F

CURRENT APPEAL WINDOWS

Cook County property tax appeal guide for HOA and condo residents.

A one-page reference your association can share with owners. No vendor agreement, no referral structure, no call to schedule. Forward, print, or paste into your owner newsletter.

Refreshed monthly · latest version at overtaxed-il.com/hoa

RESIDENTS — WHAT THEY CAN DO

Three things, in any order.

- 01 Check your township's appeal window. Cook County reassesses on a 3-year rotation; each township opens a short filing window once per cycle.
- 02 Compare your assessment to similar units in the building and to comparable nearby buildings.

ASSOCIATION — WHAT'S REQUIRED

Nothing, really.

- 01 Forward or post the resident notice (right column / next page) if it's useful.
- 02 No vendor agreement with the association is involved or requested.
- 03 No referral fee, kickback, or pricing arrangement. Owners

WHAT THIS IS NOT

Boundaries up

- Not legal advice. This is not a substitute for an attorney in a contested matter.
- Not a guaranteed claim. Outcome is at the discretion of the township, commissioner, or Board's decision.
- Not an association appeal. This res

× RESIDENT NOTICE — COPY THIS INTO YOUR OWNER NEWSLETTER

~110 words · p

Cook County property tax appeals — 2026 window

As an owner in Cook County, you can appeal your property's assessed value during your appeal window. Windows are short and open once during each township's three-year reassessment cycle.

Most Cook County township appeal windows are short. If you miss yours, you may have